Franklin, Tennessee - A vibrant and growing city

A dynamic community of 42 square miles and 84,454 residents, Franklin, located in the heart of Williamson County, has earned a national reputation as a safe and vibrant community.

The Franklin Police Department, the ninth largest in the State, continues to maintain one of the lowest crime rates per capita in Tennessee. As the City continues to grow, we are constantly seeking new ways to exceed the needs and expectations of our residents.

The time is now...Are You Ready?

The Franklin Police Department is Internationally accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, and offers excellent opportunities to anyone seeking a career in law enforcement including: uniformed patrol (by car, motorcycle, bicycle, and Segway), traffic investigations, criminal investigations (narcotics/ vice, crimes against persons and property), advanced crime scene processing, SWAT, crisis negotiations, honor guard, training, public affairs, professional standards, and more.

What FPD has to offer:

- A competitive salary and benefits package.
- Opportunity for training and advancement in several law enforcement specializations.
- We value our officers and we give them the right tools to do their jobs- including some of the best training and equipment you'll find anywhere.
